SCOPE

In order to satisfy the electric network needs... The utilities, network operators, and industrial equipment manufacturers, altogether permanently contribute to substation equipments' improvements. Furthermore, it is necessary to move forward in product betterment, in order to satisfy the requirement due to existing network compatibility. "Smart Grids", renewable energies sources and fully automatized applications are new challenges within sustainable development policy.

The applications for this wide and cross-cutting conference, covers the MV, HV or EHV substations, either gas or air insulated, as well as MV/LV substation equipment such as:

- Switchgears, circuit breakers, switchers and selectors,
- Power and instrument transformers,
- Auxiliary equipments, lightening arresters capacitors...

CONFERENCE TOPICS

- › Feedback on substation equipment
- › Sustainable development
- › Flexibility of networks and smart grids
- › 2.0 P&C
- › Technology evolution

More details available on the conference website

TECHNICAL VISITS

The conference will end with a full day of very stimulating technical visits.

EXHIBITION

6sqm and 9sqm will be available. Reserve your booth now and become an exhibitor at MATPOST 2019 (same venue as the conference). You will then benefit from the opportunity to interact with the key players of the MatPost community and show your products.
